JANE KREUSLER-WALSH NAMED TO U.S. NEWS & WORLD REPORT BEST LAWYERS

List Compiled by Peer Nominations to Recognize Outstanding Attorneys

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla.- Appellate attorney Jane Kreuzler-Walsh has been named to U.S. News & World Report's South Florida Best Lawyers list for 2012. Kreuzler-Walsh, owner of West Palm Beach-based Kreuzler-Walsh Compiani & Vargas, was recognized for her exceptional work in appellate law.

U.S. News & World Report's Best Lawyers is the oldest and most respected peer-review publication in the legal profession. Selection to the list is an honor because it is compiled by exhaustive peer-review surveys in which tens of thousands of leading lawyers confidentially evaluate professional peers.

"I have been practicing law for over three decades and recognition from U.S. News & World Report's Best Lawyers is one of the highlights because the selection process is vetted by peers," says Kreuzler-Walsh. "I am proud that my dedication to appellate law is recognized by my colleagues and other professionals."

Kreuzler-Walsh has been named to the U.S. News & World Report's Best Lawyers list 13 times and was recognized as Best Lawyers 2011 Appellate Lawyer of the Year for West Palm Beach, Fla. U.S. News & World Report's Best Lawyers peer-reviewed listings are published in almost 70 countries around the world. The 18th edition of The Best Lawyers In America (2012) includes 43,629 attorneys in 135 practice areas, covering all 50 states and the District of Columbia, and inclusion in the publication is based on more than 3.9 million detailed evaluations of lawyers by other lawyers.

As head of Kreuzler-Walsh, Compiani & Vargas, board-certified and Martindale-Hubbell AV-rated Kreuzler-Walsh has argued numerous times in the Florida Supreme Court and all Florida District Courts of Appeal, with over 480 reported decisions. Her successes in appellate law recently landed her on the cover of Florida Super Lawyers, along with the magazine's distinction of "The Top 50 Women" and "The Top 100" attorney.
